D. QUALIFICATION PATHWAY

Number of quota places	Qualification events
The qualification events are listed in hierarchical order of qualification:
MEN D.1. 1 Team (14 athletes)	2027 IHF Men's World Championship (Germany, 13-31 January 2027)  The highest placed NOC at the 2027 IHF World Championship will obtain one quota place for the LA28 Olympic Games. If the USA as the host country will be World Champions, the quota place will be allocated to the next highest placed NOC.

D.2.*4 teams
(56 athletes)*Continental Qualification Events

Four places will be allocated through continental qualification events.

The continental representatives from Asia, Africa and Europe will be the NOCs of the highest ranked teams at the respective continental qualification events. The continental representative from North America and the Caribbean and South and Central America will be the highest ranked NOC at a combined continental qualification event.

No dedicated continental qualification event for Oceania will take place. However, the NOCs of the Continental Confederation of Oceania are invited to take part in the Asian continental qualification event for the World Championships. If a representative from Oceania is ranked 5th or higher at the Asian continental qualification event, the team concerned will qualify for the IHF World Championship, where they will have the possibility to qualify directly for the Olympic Games or the IHF Olympic Qualification Tournament.

In the event that the 2027 world champions or the host country of the LA28 Olympic Games also wins the continental qualification event, the NOC of the next highest ranked team of the respective continental qualification event will obtain the quota place.

Continental qualification events:

- Men's qualification event of the Continental Confederations of North America and the Caribbean and South and Central America: Pan-American Games, 16 July to 1 August 2027, PER
- Men's Asian qualification event: Autumn 2027 (TBC)
- Men's European qualification event: European Championship, 13-30 January 2028, ESP/POR/SUI
- Men's African qualification event: African Championship, January 2028 (TBC)

D.3.*6 teams
(84 athletes)*Men's Olympic Games Qualification Tournaments 2028 (TBC)

Six quota places will be allocated through three Men's Olympic Qualification Tournaments of four teams. The two highest placed NOCs from each of these three Men's Olympic Qualification Tournaments will obtain one quota place each.

The teams eligible to participate in these tournaments are selected as follows:

	Tournament 1	Tournament 2	Tournament 3
Teams selected through ranking at the 2027 World Championship	2 nd	3 rd	4 th
	7 th	6 th	5 th
	3 rd best continent (QS*3)	2 nd best continent (QS2)	Best continent (QS1)
	4 th best continent (QS4)	Best continent (QS5)	2 nd best continent (QS6)

*QS = Qualification quota place for the IHF Men's Olympic Qualification Tournament

If one or more teams placed between 2nd and 7th at the 2027 World Championship have already obtained a quota place for the Olympic Games at their respective continental qualification events, the team placed 8th (or thereafter) at the 2027 World Championship will be eligible to participate in the IHF Men's Olympic Qualification Tournaments, and all the other teams will move one spot forward. QS1 to QS6 are not affected by this as these teams are determined through continental qualification events.

Example: If the team placed third at the 2027 World Championship has already obtained a quota place for the Olympic Games at its continental qualification event, the team placed fourth at the World Championship will advance to the place which was originally allocated to the third-placed team (and consequently participate in Tournament 2). Hence, all following teams (5th – 7th) will also move one spot forward, with the spot originally intended for the seventh-ranked team now open for the team ranked eighth at the World Championship.

The same system will be applied mutatis mutandis in the event that several eligible teams have already qualified through their continental qualification events.

QS1 and QS5 will be allocated to the highest placed continent at the 2027 World Championship. The highest ranked team (QS1) and next highest ranked team (QS5) at the respective continental qualification event not yet qualified and not yet selected to participate in the IHF Qualification Tournaments will obtain the corresponding quota place.

QS2 to QS4 are allocated to the second (QS2), third (QS3) and fourth (QS4) highest placed continents at the 2027 World Championship. The highest placed teams at the respective continental qualification event not yet qualified and not yet selected to participate in the IHF Qualification Tournaments will obtain the corresponding quota place. In the case of the Continental Confederations of North America and the Caribbean and South and Central America, the “best continent” positions will be allocated based on the ranking at the respective combined continental qualification event.

Example: Even though e.g. BRA (belonging to South and Central America) is the best team from North America and the Caribbean and South and Central America, the corresponding place to be allocated to the next highest ranked NOC at the combined continental qualification event might be allocated to e.g. CUB (belonging to North America and the Caribbean).

QS 6: If any team from Oceania places between 8th and 12th at the 2027 World Championship, this qualification quota place will be allocated to the highest placed NOC at the event in which Oceania can qualify which is not yet qualified. If this is not the case, this qualification quota place will be allocated to the second highest placed continent at the 2027 World Championship, in addition to QS2. The NOC of the highest placed team at the respective continental qualification event which is not yet qualified for the Olympic Games or the Olympic Qualification Tournament will be allocated the quota place.

The NOCs/NFs participating in the Olympic Qualification Tournaments must confirm their Olympic Games participation to the IHF if they obtain a quota place at the same time as registering their team(s) for the Olympic Qualification Tournaments, i.e. by date TBC.

MEN	D.4. 1 team (14 athletes)	The host country will automatically qualify one men's team of 14 athletes on condition that the selected athletes meet the eligibility requirements described under section C of this document.
	D.5. 1 team (14 athletes)	2027 IHF Women's World Championship (Hungary, 1 to 19 December 2027) The highest placed NOC at the 2027 IHF World Championship will obtain one quota place for the LA28 Olympic Games. If the USA as the host country will be World Champions, the quota place will be allocated to the next highest placed eligible NOC.

Women's Olympic Games Qualification Tournaments 2028 (TBC)

Six quota places will be allocated through three Women's Olympic Qualification Tournaments of four teams.

The NOCs of the first- and second-highest placed teams from each of these three Women's Olympic Qualification Tournaments will obtain one quota place each.

The teams eligible to participate in these tournaments are selected as follows:

	4 th best continent (QS4)	Best continent (QS5)	2 nd best continent (QS6)

*QS= Qualification quota place for the IHF Women's Olympic Qualification Tournament

If one or more teams placed between 2nd and 7th at the 2027 World Championship has/have already qualified for the Olympic Games at their respective continental qualification events, the team placed 8th (or below) at the 2027 World Championship will be eligible to participate in the IHF Women's Olympic Qualification Tournaments, and all the other teams will move one spot forward. QS1 to QS6 are not affected by this as these teams are determined through continental qualification events.

Example: If the team placed third at the 2027 World Championship has already qualified for the Olympic Games at its continental qualification event, the team placed fourth at the World Championship will advance to the place that was originally allocated to the third placed team (and consequently participate in Tournament 2). Hence, also all the following teams (5th – 7th) will move one spot forward, with the spot originally intended for the 7th ranked team now being open for the team ranked 8th at the World Championship.

QS1 and QS5 will be allocated to the highest placed continent at the 2027 World Championship. The highest ranked team (QS1) and next highest ranked team (QS5) at the respective continental qualification event not yet qualified and not yet selected to participate in the IHF Qualification Tournaments will obtain the corresponding qualification quota place.

QS2 to QS4 are allocated to the second (QS2), third (QS3) and fourth (QS4) highest placed continents at the 2027 World Championship. The highest placed teams at the respective continental qualification event not yet qualified and not yet selected to participate in the IHF Qualification Tournaments will obtain the corresponding qualification quota place.

In the case of the Continental Confederations of North America and the Caribbean and South and Central America, the “best continent” positions will be allocated based on the ranking at the respective combined continental qualification event.

Example: Even though e.g. BRA (belonging to South and Central America) is the best team from North America and the Caribbean and South and Central America, the corresponding place to be allocated to the next highest ranked NOC at the combined continental qualification event might be allocated to e.g. CUB (belonging to North America and the Caribbean).

QS6: If any team from Oceania places between 8th and 12th at the 2027 World Championship, this qualification quota place will be allocated to the highest placed NOC at the event in which Oceania can qualify, and which is not yet qualified. If this is not the case, this qualification quota place will be allocated to the second highest placed continent at the 2027 World Championship, in addition to QS2. The NOC of the highest placed team at the respective continental qualification event which is not yet qualified for the Olympic Games or the Olympic Qualification Tournament will be allocated the qualification quota place.

The NOCs/NFs participating in the Olympic Qualification Tournaments must confirm their Olympic Games participation to the IHF if they obtain a quota place at the same time as registering their team(s) for the Olympic Qualification Tournaments, i.e. date TBC.
